

DIVE RIGHT IN

Across

4. Where Norwegian composer Terje Isungset gets the raw materials for the instruments he builds
7. The forcible capture of potential seamen
12. Country where numerous sea songs were created to glorify naval life with the goal of enticing future mariners
14. The first great virtuosi of the armonica shared this first name.
15. This Asian nation boasts a fifteenth-century instrument made up of seventy-six water-filled bowls of varying sizes.
16. This Native American tribe restricts its water drum usage to the medicine lodge, so the purpose of the drum is kept private.
19. This Irishman thrilled audiences in 1744 with a water-tuned glass harp he called “the Angelic organ.”
20. A floating theater that included incidental music in its performances
21. Film with a musical theme representing a shark
23. The passage during a concerto in which the orchestral ensemble stops playing, and the soloist alone is showcased