Affidavit

I will serve as the proctor for the online administration of the Academic Pentathlon essay test for the aforementioned high school on April 23, 2026 and/or objective tests on May 15, 2026. I am not a Decathlon team coach, assistant coach, or parent of any team member. I am a school employee or volunteer. I agree to administer and monitor the essay and objective test(s) according to the rules and procedures below and according to the test directions that will be provided.

1. I agree to read the test directions provided by USAD aloud to pentathletes.
2. I will make sure that pentathletes do not bring ANY materials into the room and will supervise the pentathletes being tested at all times to make sure they are not using aides of any kind (resource guides, notes, dictionary etc.).
3. I will walk around and monitor students to make sure they do not leave the internet browser window or open additional tabs within the window.
4. I will make sure students are not using electronic devices of any kind (e.g. phones, ipods, smartwatches, etc.) besides the computer issued to them.
5. I will make sure that all pentathletes from the school begin testing at the same time and will not allow pentathletes who are absent to take the test at a later date or time.
6. I will make sure that the testing room is secure and will limit access to pentathletes only. I will not allow coaches, parents, or any unauthorized people in the testing room.
7. I will limit access to the test and test materials to the actual testing period.
8. I will collect and check that all materials (scratch paper) have been returned before releasing the pentathletes from the testing session.
9. If a pentathlete is caught using aides or cheating, I will write down the decathlete's ID number and report this as soon as possible to Daniele Grigsby at USAP - Daniele@usad.org.
